17.12.26.wolverine AM enf add v1.docx

Thanks – it doesn't have the enforcement addendum, that is attached and can be merged in (I will take another look at it since there may be a few legacy remnants). Tom

Hi Tom and Jacquie,

Sorry, I took a break before checking my email. I couldn't find the AM in my sharepoint, so I reviewed Jeff's AM from an attachment he sent us. I know the AM was updated, so I will compare my comments to the updated AM tomorrow morning (hopefully when I can figure out how to access it). For the most part, I had no major changes or concerns.

I attached my comments on the AM above, but as I mentioned, I will put any remaining comments on Sharepoint tomorrow morning.

See you tomorrow,

Gillian

I think that's a good plan. Yes, it's in one drive. You'll want to go to that "shared with me" link once you're in one drive to find it. It's a folder with two AMs in it – one for the UAO and one for the AOC. It's the AOC one he wants to finalize.

OK – just a few minor typos in the UAO so far. IF it makes sense, I will stop and review the AM (BTW I am glad he has a specific goal in mind, I definitely don't want to discourage it). The AM is in Share, yes?

PS – I reviewed the AM. Jeff wants to finalize tomorrow morning first thing.

Thanks – about what time did you send the message sharing the UAO?

Also, note that if you want a diversion, there is a piece on MI Live's page reporting that DEQ has "abruptly" announced a PFAS cleanup rule today. So, there is that.... tom

Thank you. I'll be reviewing the AM now. Jeff is waiting for comments tonight.
